Old Business

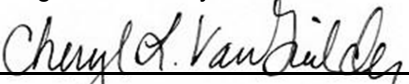

- a. Regalia Classes – Pat said there were no classes held during holiday break since everyone was too busy; the class is coming along pretty good and they are going to wind it up in about two weeks; There were a total of seven people working on regalia; Pat was concerned about two of the ladies that signed up because they aren't available to finish their projects; however, Pat is willing to go to them on Sunday's to help them finish; there are five other people working on projects; one girl moved and it was suggested that Pat finish it and raffle it off or someone could bring the material the girl so she can finish it; Pat will talk to her mom first about it; Pat will take pictures of the finished pieces when they are done; Carrie wanted to know if anyone had to be put on a waiting list and said that we could try another class in April; the current participants were recruited by word not by flyer; Simone said she could help out with a flyer for the next class and will email it to Laura for printing
- b. Winter Gathering – Good turnout; Some people came in and got gifts for their kids and they were not enrolled anywhere; it got really chaotic with the gift giving part; Gayle wants to write a letter to the marines to thank them for the gifts and will have Laura scan and email it to Ryan White who has the contact information to send it to them; We asked about the door prizes that the other districts were able to raffle off and Steve White told us that gaming provided those door prizes and we need to remind them that we want same door prizes for this year
- c. Duluth Voting Precinct (2016) – We want to have a voting precinct again this year; Carrie told us they will have Steven Howard come down for next meeting regarding voting precinct; we will have to send out mailings to let local voters know; we need to get the word out to come in to vote at AICHO

New Business

- a. Open Discussion – Lutheran Social Services of Duluth is hosting a brainstorming event at AICHO on February 5, 2016; Nissa and Simone are going to attend and want Laura to attend as well. Gayle mentioned that there is a school powwow at Myers-Wilkins next week, Wednesday 1/27/16 at 5:00 p.m. We need to contact families with kids to find out if any want to attend the perch jerk and have a sign up list by our next meeting to give to Simone, LLBO will provide van(s) for transportation.
