

Application for Ma'iingan in the Moonlight August 12-13, 2024

Ma'iingan in the Moonlight, hosted by the Leech Lake Division of Resource Management, is a gathering of youth to explore the wildlife biology field through an interactive trip to the International Wolf Center and North American Bear Center in Ely, MN. This two-day trip will allow youth to explore what it is like being a wildlife biologist with hands-on activities learning about culturally important species, Ma'iingan (gray wolf) and Makwa (black bears). DRM Wildlife Program staff will chaperone and mentor youth along with staff from the Wolf Center and Bear Center. Food, field trips fees, and transportation to and from the DRM to Ely, MN are provided. Youth will need to bring their own overnight items and outdoor appropriate clothes and footwear.

This program is accepting 15 youth applicants between the ages of 12 -17. Applications will be accepted in order they are received with preference given to Leech Lake Band Members and new applicants.

We highly encourage both young men and women to apply. There will be both female and male mentors for all activities. Applications will be accepted until July 22, 2024.
